The Pocahontas High School Senior Class of 1949 wish to dedicate their annual to those who have made their annual and trip to Washington a reality. We wish to thank the members of the faculty who have given their aid, our parents, all organizations and individuals who contributed funds in order that we might pave the way for our posterity.

With best wishes and heartfelt appreciation, we dedicate to you, the 1949 CHIEF.

SEASON FOOTBALL RECORD

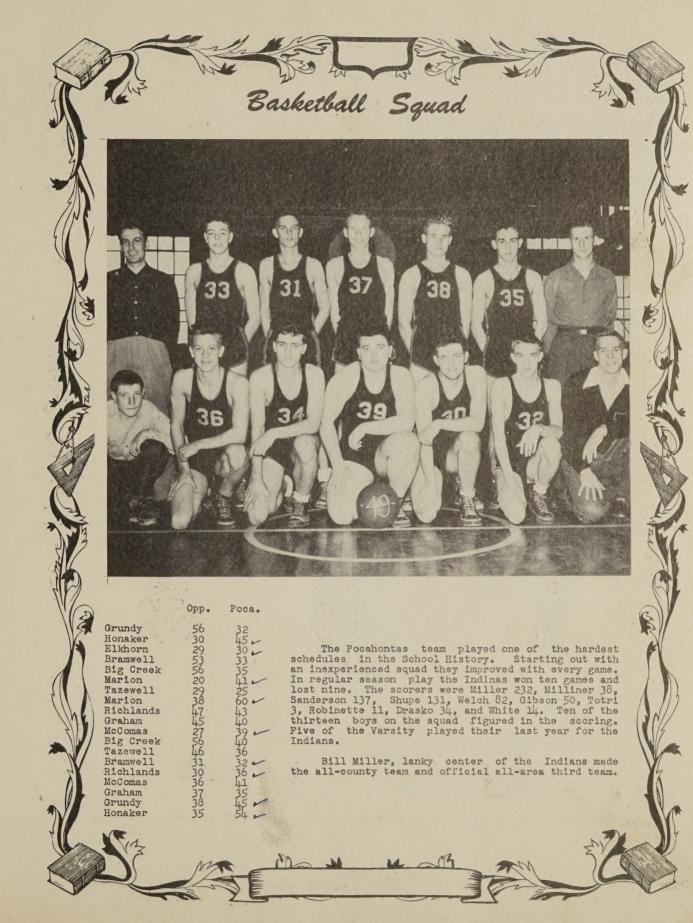

The Pocahontas Indians completed their football season with one of the most successful records in the history of the school. The Indians won six of their games, tied one, and lost only three. Their only defeats were to their county rivals, and the highest score of any defeat was only thirteen points.

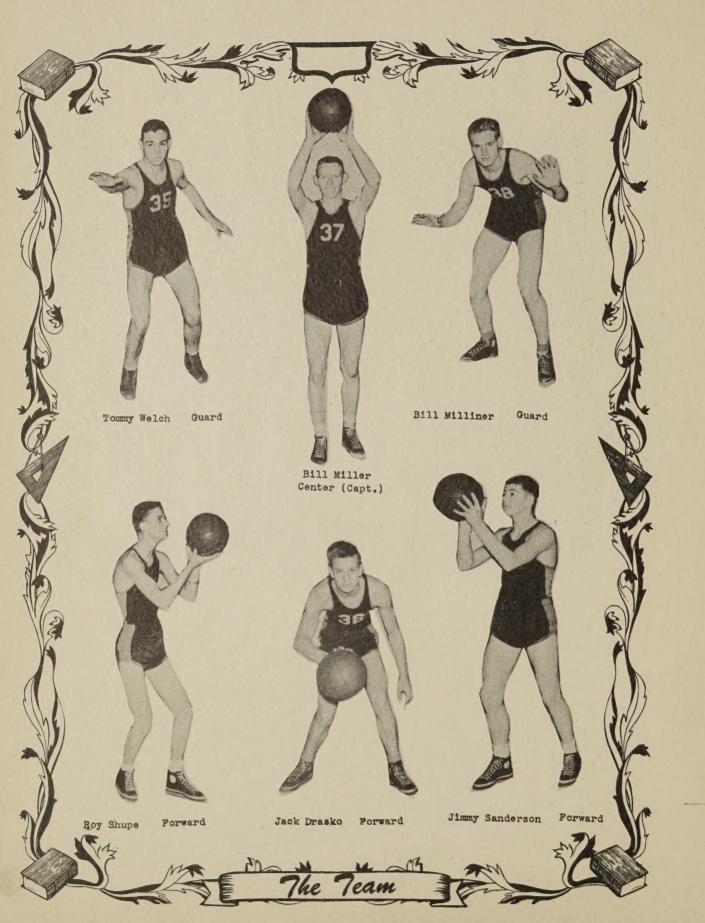

FOOTBALL BANQUET

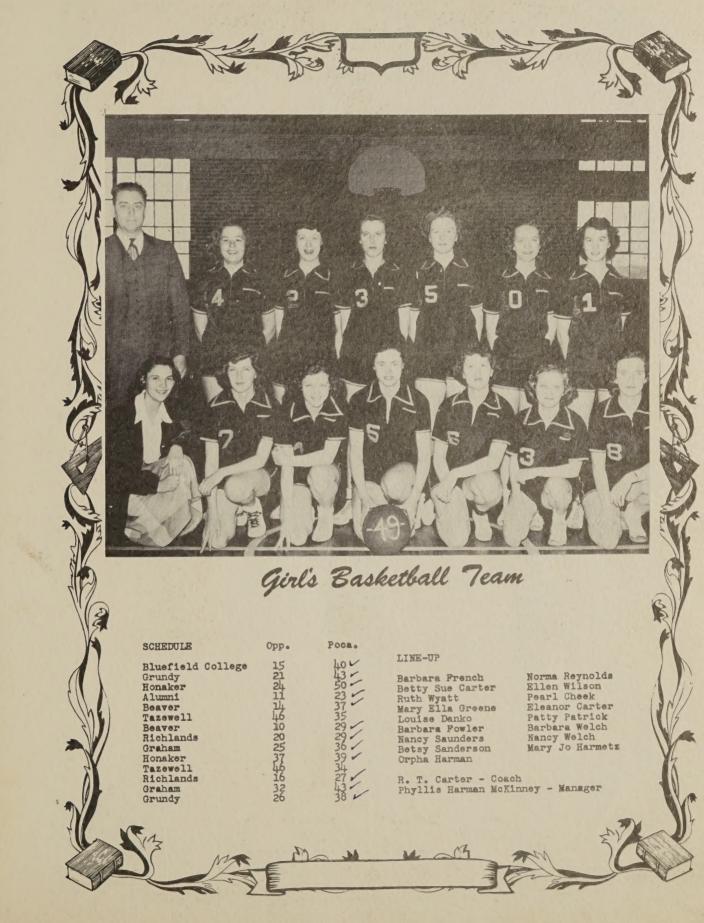

The football boys at the end of the season were honored with a banquet given by the Womans Club, the Lions Club, American Legion and members of the P. T. A. The Banquet was very much appreciated and won't be forgotten by the football boys of the 1948 season.

Last Will and Testament

Four years ago, the senior class of 1949 entered the school that has given us much joy and happiness. Now as we are about to depart, we submit our final testament and will as follows:

To the principal, Mr. R. T. Carter, we leave our sincere appreciation to his undying efforts to make this a better school.

To the faculty, we give our heartiest thanks for efforts made to make us intelligent students and we feel sure these efforts have not been in vain.

To our senior sponsor, Mrs. R. S. Hager, we sincerely hope that her next senior class will not be quite as stubborn and nerve racking as the one leaving.

Paul Brewster wills his co-operative spirit to the "Know-It-Alls".

Crockett Murphy wills his plumpness for a little height.

Helen Daugherty wills all her smiles to a certain party.

Joyce Higginbotham wills her dimples to those who never smile.

Dorothy Draughn wills her smiles and friendly ways to everyone.

Billy Miller wills his height to the short He-Men. Billy Milliner wills his wavy hair to the less fortunate. Marvin French, Jr. needs all he has and more too. Jack Drasko wills his dark complexion to those with artificial tans.

Mary Ella Greene wills her height for a little plumpness.

Ralph McGlothin wills his speaking ability to John Davidson.

Woodie Milliner wills those beautiful eyes to Kilroy.

Betty Farmer wills her love of music and sense of humor to anyone interested.

Aubrey Sadler wills his artistic and writing ability to the squibblers.

Jeff Gillespie wills his quiet and silent ways to the loud mouths.

Betty Tabor wills her flirting ability to younger girls learning the trade.

Anna Ruth Moore wills her gift of "bob" to all the silent chicks.

Elizabeth Schuler wills her sweet personality to everyone.

Freda Harless wills her ability to pass all tests without effort to the dumb bells.

Dot Hill wills her sweet grins and smiles to the gloomy.

Claude Ballard wills his school bus to anyone lucky enough to get it.

Charles Gilmore wills some of his ill-temper to the easy goers of P.H.S.

Phyllis Cooper in my estimation could do without something but maybe she had better keep everything.

Maxine Bleasce wills her sales talk to the rest of you who try.

Wanda Murphy wills her business math grades to the ones that are suckers enough to want them.

Edna Byrd wills her driving ability to all the girls. Phyllis McKinney would probably will Ronnie but she can't do without him.

Bunk Bolen wills his slippery means of stealing typing paper to those who want to learn the trade.

Eugene Gibson wills his ability to attract all the girls attention to some of the younger boys.

Ray Robinette wills his ability to referee a game to Tony Lotito.

Andrew Satmary wills his ability to give current events to those that never fail to have one.

Mary Hess wills her love for literature to those that hate it.

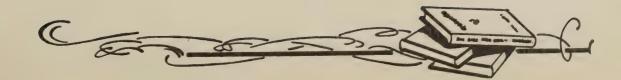

Tommy Welch wills his good nature and sportsmanship to everyone.

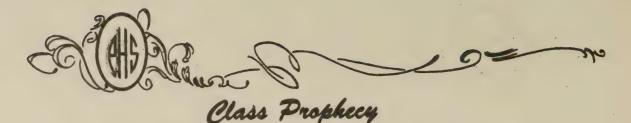

Marvin White wills his neatness in appearance to the very slouchy.

I, Dot Carr, will some of my curly hair to the girls that have to use bobbie pins every night.

We, declare that this is the last will and testament of the Senior Class of Pocahontas High School of 1949.

> Witnessed by-Dot Carr

I, Madam LaHorseShoe do predict that ten years from March 8, 1949 that: Maxine Bledsoe will be an old-maid school teacher down in Florida. Edna Byrd will be a prominent taxi driver. Dot Carr will be a private investigator, tracking down lost husbands, who get lost of their own free will. Phyllic Cooper will be working in Greenberg's Market. Helen Daugherty will own a private their own free will. Phyllic Cooper will be working in Greenberg's Market. Helen Daugherty will own a private school, teaching "How to Get Your Man": Dorothy Draughn will be married to Robert who will be a traveling salesman. Betty Farmer will be a comedian for the Grand Old Opry in Nashville. Mary Green will be a Fuller Brush Woman. Phyllis McKinney will be working in the Drug Store to support Ronny: Freda Harless will be an opera singer in California. Mary Smith will be an opera singer in California. Mary Smith will be traveling about in her trailer with Harry. Joyce Higginbotham will be Justice of the Peace in Bluefield. Dot Hill will be a ballet dancer. Anna Ruth Moore will be owner of a Teenage Club. Wanda Murphy will be teaching piano lessons in Pittsburg. Mary Schuler will be a typist for the new principal of P. H. S., who is Tommy Welch. Betty Tabor will be coaching the basketball girls of Graham.

Claude Ballard will be a bachelor, driving the school bus from Boissevain to Pocahontas. Bunk Bolen will be the proud owner of a used car lot. Paul Brewster trying out as an actor in Hollywood, since winning fame in the senior class play. Jack Drasko will be a heavy weight boxing champion; he won fame after kayo-ing Jersey Joe Walcott. Junior French will have a white beard down to his waist, but we'll know him because he will be still going to school and selling newspapers --- he was too dumb to everylearn any other trade. Eugene Gibson will marry Marie and be a prosperous farmer down in Abbs Valley. Jefferson Gillespie will be singing on the radio, after taking Frankie Sinatra's place upon resignation. Charles Gilmore will be an eye specialist, where he will try to help other people see, because he can't without two pair of glasses. Jack Hurley will be the janitor in Pocahontas High School, trying to earn enough money to go to college! Ralph McGlothin will be sheriff trying to carry on for his father. Bill Miller will be a blacksmith in Bill Milliner will own a cotton plantation Boissevain. down in Georgia. Woodie Milliner will be a mine foreman. Crockett Murphy will be teaching "How to Reduce" in New York. Ray Robinette will be manager of Kroger's Store.

Aubrey Sadler will be a rich artist living in Brooklyn. Andrew Satmary will be the head of the Virginia State Road Construction Co. Marvin White will be postmaster in Abbs Valley....Fate has spoken and you cannot escape this path, I declare on this day.
